

Please do not change the Wisconsin DO NOT CALL legislation.
Unsolicited calls from telemarketers are disruptive and psychologically damaging for people who have been raised not to be rude. Elderly persons are especially vulnerable to these contacts because they do not hang up immediately and are drawn into the sales pitch and can not say no to the offers.